RACING
REWARDS
SA

FORWARD

The newly created Racing Rewards SA program handed out $2,018,350 in bonuses during the 2020/2021 season.

Racing SA has further enhanced the program for season 2021/2022 with eligible horses now competing for $2.2 million in bonuses at Thoroughbred racing venues across the state.

The price to nominate weanlings has also been reduced to $1,320 (inc GST). Other enhancements that are being maintained include:

- Free Entry to the system for Category 1 (SA sired and bred)
- Introduction of the South Australian purchased weanlings and yearlings that would have previously been ineligible (conditions apply)
- Introduction of Racing Rewards SA and Magic Millions Bonus Raceday at Murray Bridge

Season highlights:

$2,018,350
total payments from 441 races.

Ryan Balfour Trained 3YO 'Outlaws Revenge' topped Racing Rewards SA bonus Payment's earning $105,300.

Highest earning 2YO was 'Knightstown' trained by Gordon Richards earning $38,400.

Racing Rewards SA Plus highest earner was 'Azzureous' trained by Peter Blanch adding an additional $29,000 in bonuses.

Racing SA wish all participants competing in Racing Rewards SA races this season the best of luck, and we look forward to working together to take the industry to new heights.

WHAT IS RACING REWARDS SA?

Racing Rewards SA is Racing SA's breeders' and owners' incentive scheme. It maximises interest in qualified horses and provides financial rewards to breeders or nominators, owners, trainers and jockeys over and above prizemoney earned

Who Does Racing Rewards SA Apply To?

Horse eligibility falls into four categories:

- South Australian sired horses (Category 1)
- South Australian breed backs (Category 2)
- Horses of South Australian breeders (Category 3)
- South Australian owned weanlings and yearlings (Category 4)

Anyone who breeds or races horses, from the hobbyist to the professional, can be involved. Trainers and jockeys also derive significant benefits from Racing Rewards SA.

Where Will Racing Rewards SA Races Be Run?

Every racing club in South Australia will host Racing Rewards SA bonus races. 2020 foals nominated for Racing Rewards SA are eligible to compete for bonuses in over 400 races throughout the whole of South Australia.

When Do Racing Rewards SA Nominations Close?

Racing Rewards SA nominations for foals born in 2020 close February 28, 2022.

When Do Racing Rewards SA Races Commence?

Foals born in 2020 will begin racing for Racing Rewards SA bonuses after August 2022 when they turn two-years-old.

GST REQUIREMENTS

IS GST PAYABLE ON NOMINATIONS?
Under the Federal Government's Tax Regime Racing SA Limited has registered for GST and must therefore charge GST on nomination fees.

The nomination fees in this Information Guide include GST.

WHEN IS GST PAYABLE ON BONUSES?
GST is payable on Racing Rewards SA bonuses only to suppliers who are registered for GST for their breeding business and have submitted details to Racing Rewards SA.
On the back of the nomination forms are details required from you for Racing Rewards SA to correctly "gross-up" bonus payments to include GST for GST registered nominators. GST is not payable to suppliers who are not registered for GST.

WHAT DO I DO ABOUT GST?
If you have not sought professional advice as to whether you should apply for an Australian Business Number (ABN) and register for GST, Racing SA recommends to do so immediately.

One or more nominators of a horse must provide:
1. Full name(s) and
2. Australian Business Number (if applicable to this activity) and
3. GST Registration Status (YES or NO) and
4. Percentage of Ownership or

Details 1, 3 and 4 to indicate their status as a hobbyist.

GST is payable to owners/breeders who have an ABN for their racing/breeding enterprise and have registered for GST.

For owners receiving prizemoney and Racing Rewards SA bonuses, the details 1, 2, 3 and 4 must be supplied to the Registrar of Racehorses, Racing NSW, Level 11, 51 Druitt Street, Sydney NSW 2000 on the Registrar's prescribed form. Forms can be obtained from Racing SA or racingsa.com.au.

The GST component of bonuses paid to GST registered nominators, owners, trainers and jockeys must be included in their monthly or quarterly business activity statement (BAS). Failure to provide Racing SA with the required information may result in Racing Rewards SA deducting 46.5% withholding tax from bonus payments under the PAYG legislation.

If you are registered for GST, you can claim a tax credit for GST included in the Racing Rewards SA nomination fee.
