

RACE TRANSFER

FROM WEDNESDAY 20 AUGUST TO SATURDAY 23 AUGUST 2008

Due to a large number of nominations for the programme of Wednesday 20 August 2008 at Cheltenham Park, TRSA has transferred a race to Saturday 23 August 2008 at Allan Scott Park Morphetville.

WAS 0-68 1250m Cheltenham Park (20 August)

NOW 1200m Allan Scott Park Morphetville (23 August)

TRSA has used its powers available to it under Local Rule 4.4 to effect this amendment. Horses nominated for this particular race will be required to lodge fresh acceptances by 9.00 am Thursday morning (21 August). Prizemoney for the event has been increased from $7,000 to $15,000.

In making this decision, TRSA took into account barrier limits, programming issues and the likely wagering impact. The programming amendment allows TRSA to divide other events on the Cheltenham Park programme in order to provide a greater number of starter opportunities for horses engaged at that meeting.
